MAYSVILLE WEATHER.

What We May Expect For the Next Twenty-four Hours.

THE LEDGER'S WEATHER SIGNALS.

White streamer—FAIR;
Blue—RAIN or SNOW;
With Black ABOVE—WILL WARMER
GROW.
If Black's BENEATH—COLDER it will be.
Unless Black's shown—no change
we'll see.

The above forecasts are made for a period of thirty-six hours, ending at 5 o'clock to-morrow evening.

UNCLE NED'S OPINION.

Old Uncle Ned is 73—
Or 74, I think—
He's never chewed tobacco;
Nor never took a drink;
He's hale and hearty, too, for sure;
Says he was never ill.
And though he went all through the war,
He's paid a doctor's bill.
Says Uncle Ned to me, one day,
"It makes me kind of tired
To see these chaps a sitting 'round
A waitin' to be hired.
Course times is hard! Who said they weren't?
But they've been hard before,
And worse times than these, my boy.
Have rapped upon our doors.
What caused 'em?
There you got me now!
Perhaps 't poltericks;
Although to this the Democrats
Will say that's nonsense.
We live, my boy, beyond our means—
Or what that we are rich,
And buy our girls planners
And violins and such.
The boys indulge in long-tailed coats
The rainbow-hued cravats;
The women folks 'll spend a farm
For fashionable hats.
We got to do what neighbors does—
No matter the expense—
The boys won't work upon the farm
To get some common sense.
They've got to go to college now,
Talk Latin, French and Greek,
Smoke cigarettes and foot ball play,
Just like a regular freak.
The girls to 'seminaries' go,
And when some chap they win,
They start in life where we leave off,
And not where we begin.
I'm seventy-four next birthday,
And never saw the likes
When I was young of all the trades
A goin, on these strikes.
A man don't have to work yer know—
He'll reap just what he sows—
But he should let the other chaps
That wants ter work alone.
Fact is we're all so mighty big,
And what we're comin' to
Is more than you nor I can tell,
Or what we're goin' to do.
Our Congressmen ain't got no sense,
And say to you I must,
The biggest swindle in the land
Is that 'ere Sugar Trust.
I'm glad I'm nearly seventy-four,
For me it does disgust
To think if things don't change right soon
The universe will bust!"

Machine Oils of all kinds at Chenoweth's Drug Store.

Mt. Olivet now has a fire engine that cost $750, but there is no water out there for the engine to use. Come down and get our Water Works, neighbor.

O. V. B. are very significant. When a man gets one of the O. V. B. he gets the very best Razor made. The best Razor is one of the best blessings allotted to man.
Frank Owens Hardware Co. can furnish "the identical self same."

IT'S SO IF IT'S IN
LEDGER.

The Dover Band will furnish the music at the Republican Convention tomorrow at Augusta.

Three Unfortunates.

Charles Austin, William Newell, Jr., and M. B. Strode were the three applicants before the Civil Service Board for examination Saturday. The reason we call them unfortunates is because of the "holy terror" of questions they had to worry over. And nine chances to one they never reached the goal.

DEATH'S HARVEST

Five Have Passed to the Great Beyond Since Saturday.

A telegram received in this city yesterday brought the sad and startling news of the death of Miss Grace Campbell, eldest daughter of T. C. Campbell of this city.
She died in Cincinnati. Funeral tomorrow morning at 10 a. m.

William Jenkins, aged 25 years, brother of Perrine Jenkins, died at the residence of Mrs. W. P. Smoot in the Fifth Ward Saturday night at 9 o'clock of consumption. Mr. Jenkins was a young man who was liked by all who knew him
—one of the all-around good fellows you don't meet every day. He has been,
until a few weeks ago, at Colorado Springs for his health. His relatives have the sympathy of the entire community. The funeral was held this morning at 10 o'clock, services by Rev. E. B.
Coke.

Henry Slitz, one of the most familiar figures our streets have held, died this morning about 3 o'clock of consumption, bravely on by living too fast. He would have been 29 years old Wednesday. He was a good hearted poor unfortunate, and those of his friends who knew him best can say that Henry was generous to a fault. No arrangements have been made for the funeral.

Mrs. Fannie Cady, wife of Walter Cady, died this morning about 5 o'clock, after an illness of several weeks. Mrs. Cady was 20 years old, a devoted young wife to her husband and little daughter, and also to her mother, father, sister and brothers.
In the time that she has been sick we don't suppose there has been anyone who ever suffered any more, but she bore it like all good Christian people, knowing that it was God's will that she suffer, for "whom He loveth He chasteneth." She was a loved and devoted member of the M. E. Church, always in her place, taking an active part in all the work of the church. The husband, family and relatives have the sympathy of all friends in their sad bereavement. The funeral arrangements had not been completed up to our going to press.

"Aunt" Lydia Strawder, one of the best known colored women in this section of the state, died yesterday morning about 9 o'clock, aged 79 years. She had been feeling bad before retiring Saturday night, and along in the night was seized with cramps, which resulted fatally. She was a good Christian lady and leaves a family of five children to mourn her loss, one of her sons being George Strawder, the Market street tinsmith. Those of "Aunt" Lydia's white friends—and they are quite numerous—will regret to learn of her sad and sudden demise. The funeral will occur tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from Scott's Chapel, services by Rev. A. McDade.

MR. WILLIAMS AGAIN.

He Tries to Suicide This Time by the Paris Green Route.

B. F. Williams wanted to die again yesterday.
But the good Lord wasn't ready, and so Mr. Williams had to wait awhile.
He was taken to Robertson county some time ago in the hopes that he would regain himself, but it seems as though he is determined to die.

One day last week he was brought back to his home in this city, and yesterday he took an overdose of paris green, which gave the stomach pump a chance to get in its work, and Mr. Williams's life was saved once more.

We do hope he will reconsider the matter and will conclude to live, as he is one of our best citizens, and we hate to give him up.

FLOWER DAY.

Its Celebration in This City Yesterday at the Jail.

Yesterday was what is known as Flower
Mission Day, instituted by Miss Jennie Cassaday of Louisville.

It was celebrated in this city by several young ladies from the Central Presbyterian Church's Y. P. S. C. E. and Mr. and Mrs. John Scott, also of that society, and Mrs. Johnson of the M. E. Church, South.

The services consisted of an offering of flowers to those poor unfortunates who are incarcerated therein, each bouquet having an appropriate verse of Scripture attached, prayer, praise and a regular church meeting.

The observance of Flower Mission Day was first thought of by Mrs. Scott, who is a valued member of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of the United States, and we can but say that our city should feel proud of this most estimable Christain lady's presence within it, together with that of Mrs. Johnson and the young ladies who are now devoting their time to home mission work, and we must say a word of encouragement to Mr.
Scott and the young men who are so ably assisting in this work, Hal. C. Curran for one.

But we must say we are in favor of this kind of work, as it reaches a class of men who never attend church, and thus the only way to reach them is in the Jail.
Keep up this work, good Christian people.

If you have friends visiting you, or if you are going away on a visit, please drop us a note to that effect.

urday night from Lexington, where she had been on an extended visit to her sister, Mrs. George Martin. Her health is greatly improved.

William Watkins, one of Maysville's bright young men who has been attending Military School in New York state on the banks of the beautiful Hudson, is at home spending his vacation.

Paris Kentuckian-Citizen.—William P.
Coons, representing the Cincinnati Printing Ink Co., was in the city and gave us a call. He is Grand High Priest of the Grand Chapter of Kentucky Masons, and remained over night to be present at the meeting of his Masonic brethren by whom he was warmly greeted. Mr.
Coons is a native of Maysville, of which city he once was Mayor, and during his incumbency presided over municipal affairs in a manner highly satisfactory to all the good people of the "Seven-acre City."

THE REPUBLICANS.

THEY HAVE A LOVE FEAST AT THE COURTHOUSE SAT-URDAY AT 1:40.

A Full County Ticket Nominated—
List of Delegates to the Congressional Convention at Augusta.

Saturday was Republican day and no mistake.

Had it been election day instead of nomination day there would have been no trouble in electing the entire ticket.

Never before in the history of Mason county has there been such enthusiasm as was manifested at Saturday's convention.

The Courthouse was packed to the door, and everybody seemed to be interested in naming a winning ticket, and we are of the opinion that the Democrats are "not once" when it comes to comparing tickets.

Promptly at 1:45 p. m. County Chairman D. P. Ort called the meeting to order and announced the first thing in order was to appoint a Committee on Credentials, to examine the credentials of the different precincts of the county to see that they were correct and to find out if all were represented. The committee appointed was as follows: William H.
Cox, John I. Salisburg, Dr. J. W. Gault,
J. W. Grigsby and R. P. Hopper.

After examining the credentials they reported the precincts all represented, and that they were ready for business.

The next thing was to find out the County Committeemen that were elected last Wednesday. They are as follows:

Maysville No. 1—W. H. Cox.
Maysville No. 2—N. Cooper.
Maysville No. 3—C. C. Hopper.
Maysville No. 4—John J. Broese.

Dieterich's No. 20—G. N. Harding.
Plumville No. 21—C. C. Deegan.

Chairman Ort then declared the convention opened for nominations for Permanent Chairman, Hamlet C. Sharp, William H. Cox, Thomas Forman and
Dr. Gault were placed in nomination.
The vote stood as follows:

Sharp.....1
Cox.....30
Forman.....7
Gault.....9

Mr. Cox was declared elected, and a committee was appointed to escort him to the chair. In reply to repeated calls for a speech he told the convention they hadn't come there to listen to speeches, but to select a winning ticket. He proceeded by calling for nominations for Secretary. Sam T. Hickman, Hamlet C.
Sharp and Robert Ficklin were nominated.

Hickman was elected by acclamation.
A. A. Wadsworth moved that they proceed to the election of county officers.

The first one on the ticket was County Judge. Captain M. C. Hutchins, John E. Wells and Milton Johnson were placed in nomination. The ballot stood—

Hutchins.....21
Johnson.....9
Wells.....7

The next was County Clerk. W. D.
Cochran and Clarence Mathews were nominated, which resulted as follows:

Cochran.....27
Mathews.....10

For County Attorney George W. Adair was nominated by acclamation, there being no other nominations.

Thad F. Moore was nominated for Sheriff without opposition.

Jailer, Mr. Dawson and Mr. Clinger withdrawing in his favor.

For Coroner Roe Stockton was nominated without opposition.

T. P. Bullock was nominated for Surveyor without opposition.

Then came the selection of delegates to go to Augusta.

The Chairman, by motion, was given the power to select the committee from the precincts who should select those who should go to Augusta.

And the committee in turn brought in the following list of names as delegates

R. Hunter of Washington and Captain John E. Wells of this city.

Captain M. C. Hutchins then moved that all good Republicans go as alternates, carried.

After a few remarks the convention
then adjourned.

The Pen's Report.

It seems that the state can manage its convicts better and net a larger profit out of their labor than the Mason-Ford Company was willing to admit they made.
Warden Henry George has just submitted his report of the operations of the Frankfort penitentiary for the month of May.
The report shows that the chair factory produced $17,333.84. The skilled labor and material to produce them cost $3,- 678.30; subtracted from the output leaves
$3,655.54 to be credited to convict labor.
There was an income from the hired convicts in addition to the above of $568.48, which makes a total of $9,226.02 to be credited to convict labor. The total cost of maintaining the penitentiary for the month was $6,865.09 which leaves $2, 360.93 as a net profit to the state over all expenses for the month of May.

Are you insured? If not, now is the time to provide yourself and family with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as an insurance against any serious results from an attack of bowel complaint during the summer months. It is almost certain to be needed and should be procured at once. No other remedy can take its place or do its work. Twenty-five and fifty cent bottles for sale by Theo. Power, Druggist.
